

Use Agreement

- We have received a copy of the Wedding Policy Handbook for weddings performed at Shiloh United Methodist Church.
- We have read and understand all aspects and policies that are established by the church.
- We agree to adhere to those policies while utilizing Shiloh United Methodist Church as the location for our worship service celebrating our marriage.
- We agree to participate in the "Premarital Counseling Experience" as stated in the handbook and will submit the $100 fee as instructed by the leader of the experience.
- The remaining balance for all fees is due on or before the day of the rehearsal.
- In the event that a cancellation is necessary, we require at least 30 days notice. If you provide that notice, we will refund your deposit. If we do not receive such notice, your deposit will not be refunded.
- We understand we are to meet with the Wedding Coordinator to deliver this signed agreement and the deposit according to the policy handbook fee structure to secure the requested dates and times for our wedding ceremony.
